

We recently amended our FEC filing to properly reflect a loan from the candidate which was initially recorded in error as a contribution.

We have treated the transaction as a loan throughout the life of the campaign and it was merely an inputting error which created this error. Once the error was discovered we took the necessary steps to correct this clerical error.

Eric Robinson, CPA
Treasurer Friends of Dennis Ross
